

Climate change survey

Asking European population their opinion about climate change.

Countries involved (select a country for stats details)

Number of participants per Country

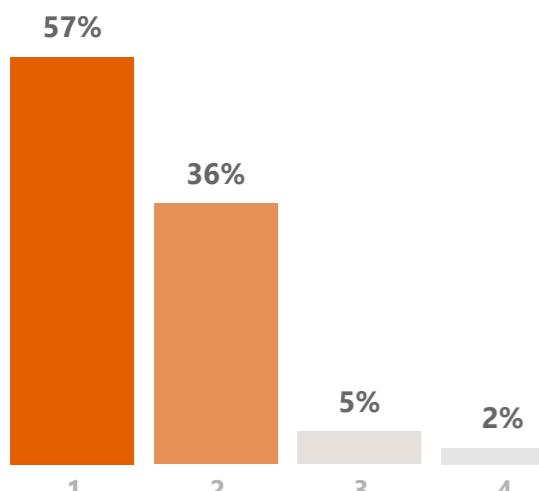

Population sentiment about climate change

Visualizing how people feels about climate change.

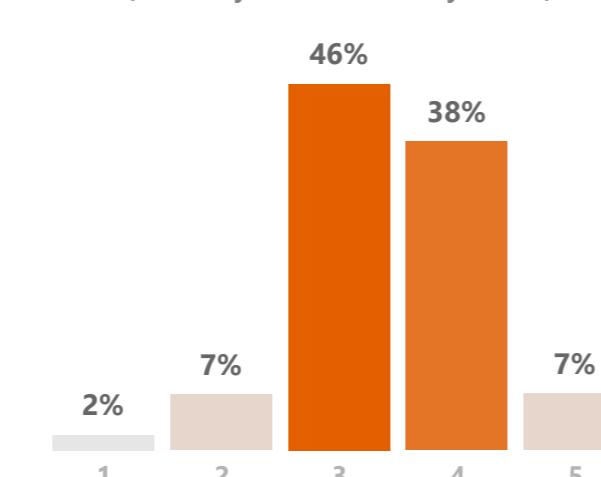

Do you think world's climate is changing?

(1. Definitely changing, 4. Definitely not changing)

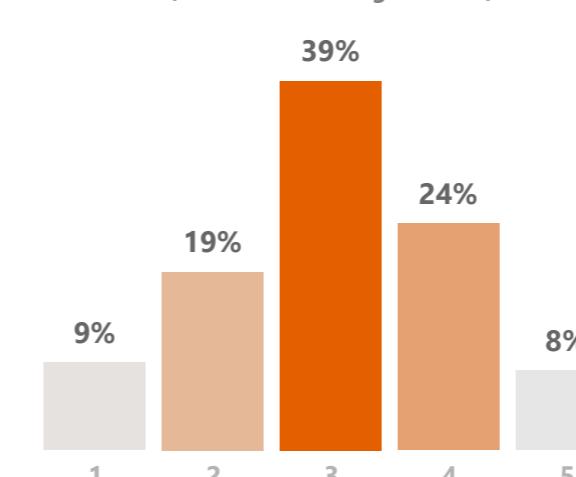

Climate change is caused by natural processes, human activity, or both?

(1. Entirely natural, 5. Entirely human)

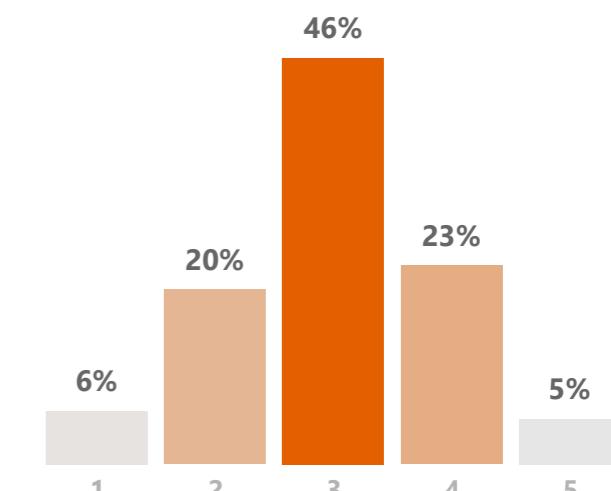

How much thought about climate change before today?

(1. Not at all, 5. A great deal)

How worried are you about climate change?

(1. Not at all worried, 5. Extremely worried)

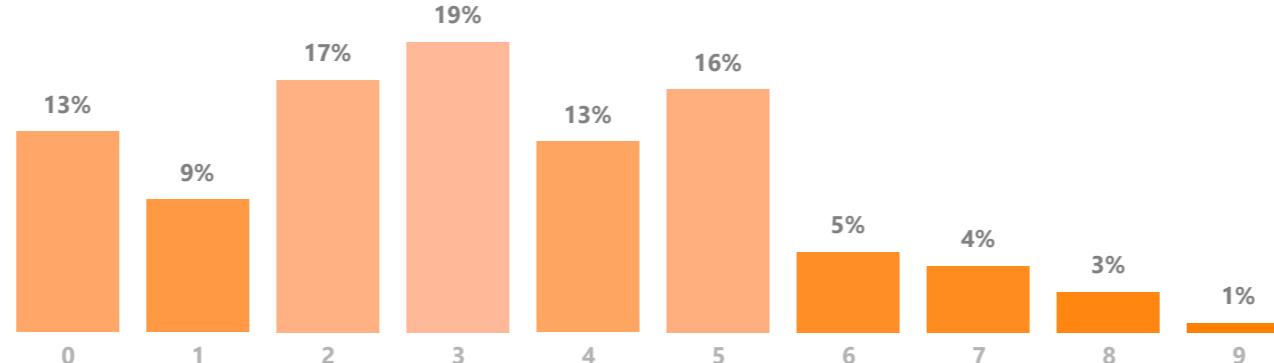

Energy supply survey

How does Climate Change can impact the feature? how energy supplies must be managed from now on?

This dashboard analyses the measures that people would like to see implemented in terms of energy supply choices. It is based on an individual's vision of the global impact of climate change.

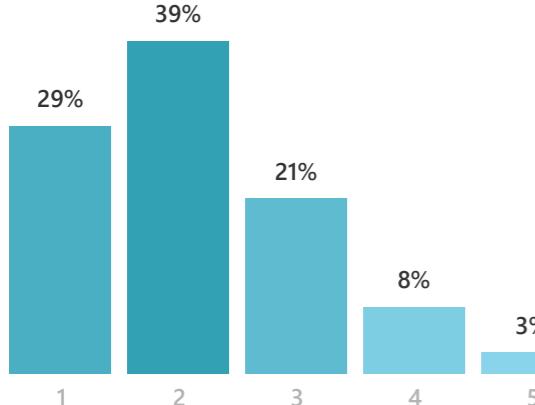

How good or bad do you think the impact of climate change will be on people across the world?

(0. Extremely bad, 9. Extremely good)

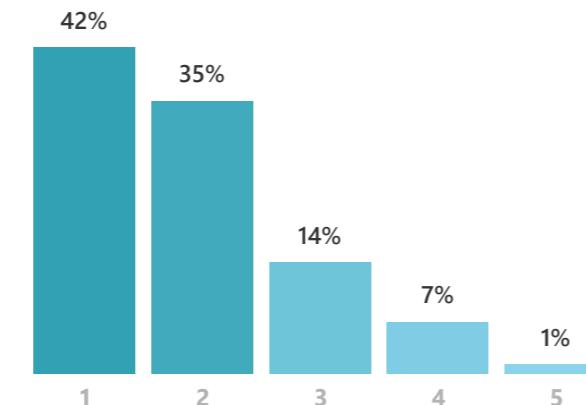

People's opinion about how much electricity from Renewable energy supplies should be generated (1. A very large amount, 5. None at all)

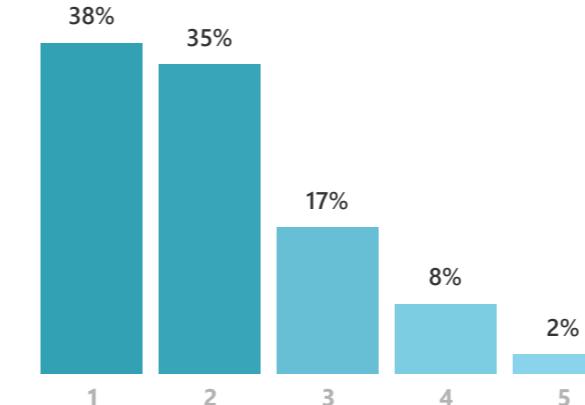

Hydroelectric power

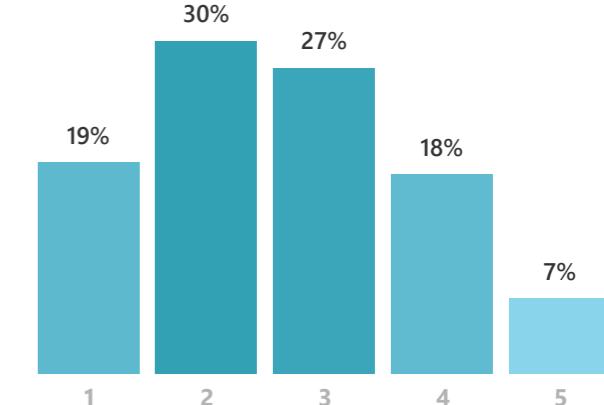

Solar power

Wind power

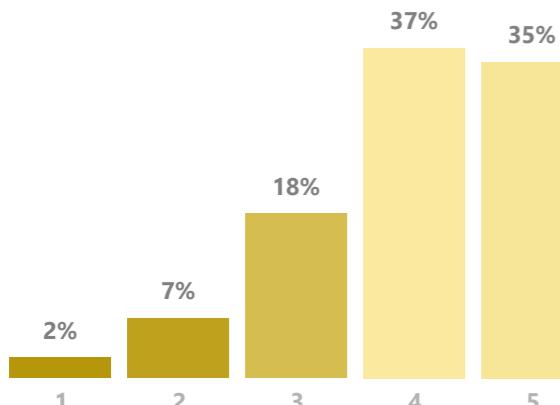

Biomass energy

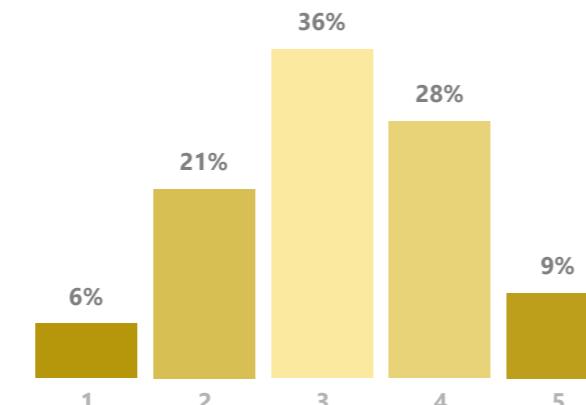

People's opinion about how much electricity from Non Renewable energy supplies should be generated (1. A very large amount, 5. None at all)

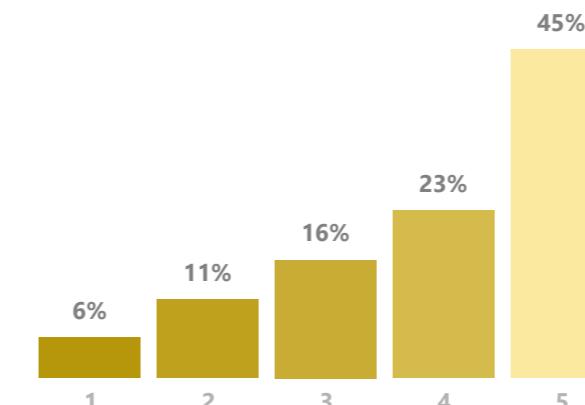

Coal

Natural Gas

Nuclear Power

The majority of people believe that climate change is a reality and that future interventions, particularly in the area of renewable energy investments, are necessary. However, there is a discrepancy between countries in terms of their perceived level of responsibility regarding climate change.